Chinmaya Vishwa Vidyapeeth
Deemed to be University

DARPAN

Volume: VI, Issue: 1 August 2026

From The Desk of The Vice Chancellor

As we continue our journey of academic excellence rooted in Bharatiya wisdom, the past few months witnessed several significant milestones across our campuses. The University introduced a revamped curriculum for its students, along with a new organisational structure to strengthen governance and academic delivery. We also expanded our Research and Development ecosystem, as well as our Innovation and Entrepreneurship framework, reaffirming our commitment to building institutions of lasting scholarly and enterprising value.

The Chinmaya Rural Action Network earned national recognition at the Asia-Pacific Forum, and we forged important new partnerships through MoUs with the University of Maryland Baltimore County, the Institute of Company Secretaries of India, CIRDAP, and the Kerala Forest Department's Social Forestry Division. Our students and faculty excelled across sports, research, and innovation, from lifting the Blitz Inter-College Football trophy to winning top honours at Aryabhateeyam 2026 and the CIRDAP-REEDS Innovation Challenge.

We also celebrated the richness of Bharatiya culture through Kalidasa Day and the Gandharv Naad Sangeet Mahotsav, even as our faculty deepened their expertise through programmes on Artificial Intelligence and Indian Knowledge Systems. CVV continues to nurture holistic development and values-based education, and we invite you to explore these and many more highlights from across the university community.

Chinmaya Rural Action Network (C-RAN) Wins National Recognition

The Chinmaya Rural Action Network (C-RAN) has been recognised as the 2nd Awardee in the National Awardees Category for the Asia Pacific Region for its innovative approach to rural development. As part of this honour, C-RAN's Project Coordinator will take part in the International Rural Development Innovation Conference, to be held from November 02 to 06, 2026, in Colombo, Sri Lanka, and showcase the project before high level officials from CIRDAP member countries, as well as potential investors.

Gandharv Naad Sangeet Mahotsav

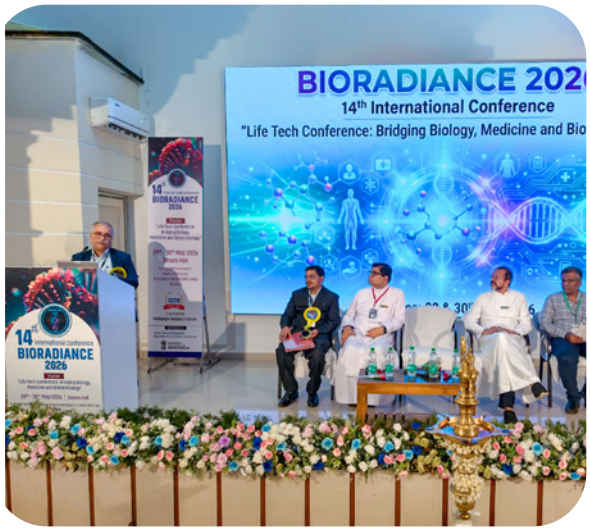
A two-day music festival was organised on 21–22 February 2026, by the School of Kalayoga in collaboration with Akhil Bharatiya Gandharva Mahavidyalaya Mandal (ABGMVM), Mumbai. The festival included musical performances by guest artists and students, including Dr Atul Kamble, Mr Satyam Sinha, and MA students Supriyo Roy, Roshan Satapathy, and Kshitij Shrivastava.

CNBG hosts SPIC MACAY Lecture in Pune

A special series of performances and lecture demonstrations was held by SPIC MACAY, in collaboration with Chinmaya Naada Bindu Gurukula (CNBG), in municipal schools in Pimpri Chinchwad, Maharashtra, from 23–25 March 2026. Sri Jayateerth Kulkarni was empanelled to lead sessions introducing Indian classical ragas and devotional bhajans. He was accompanied by Dr Atul Kamble, Ms Siddhi Vinayak, and Mr Supriyo Roy on instruments.

HarithaSevotsavam 2026 Launched with Plant A Sapling Initiative

The inauguration ceremony of the Plant A Sapling initiative under HarithaSevotsavam 2026 was organised on 15 May 2026 at the LP facility, Onakkoor, with active public participation and strong support. The inaugural speech was delivered by Dr S. Glory Swarupa, Dean – IEER, who emphasised the importance of environmental sustainability and community participation in green initiatives.



Prof. Manoj Kumar Arora Inaugurates Bioradiance 2026

The inaugural session of Bioradiance 2026, the International Conference on Bridging Biology, Medicine and Biotechnology, was held on 30 May 2026 at the Senate Hall, Pushpagiri Institute of Medical Sciences & Research Centre (PIMS & RC), Thiruvalla. The conference was formally inaugurated by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of CVV, Prof. Manoj Kumar Arora.

World Environment Day Celebration

World Environment Day was observed with great enthusiasm at the Onakkoor facility on June 5th, reaffirming the University's commitment to environmental sustainability and ecological responsibility. The celebrations were inaugurated by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. Manoj Kumar Arora, who planted a sapling as a symbol of the institution's dedication to environmental conservation. The University also donated 50 high yielding fruit saplings of different varieties to the Pambakkuda Grama Panchayat, as part of the celebrations.

Kalidasa Day

The School of Linguistics and Literary Studies celebrated Kalidasa Day on 17 July 2026, with great enthusiasm, bringing together students, faculty, and scholars to honour the unparalleled legacy of Mahakavi Kalidasa. The programme showcased the timeless appeal of his works through recitation, literary appreciation, philosophical reflection, original composition, and creative technological innovation.

Academic Highlights

CVV Unveils Revamped Curriculum with Renewed Focus on Experiential and Value-Based Learning

Chinmaya Vishwa Vidyapeeth has introduced a revamped curriculum with a renewed focus on experiential and value-based learning across its academic programmes. The new structure blends contemporary professional education with Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) and value-based learning, integrating Sanskrit, Yoga and ethics into mainstream disciplines rather than treating them as standalone components.

Curriculum Revamp

The revised framework brings together disciplinary learning, interdisciplinary exposure, skill enhancement, research and project-based work, while strengthening the integration of Indian Knowledge Systems and Contemporary Knowledge Systems across programmes.

Undergraduate Framework

At the undergraduate level, the curriculum combines core courses and electives with interdisciplinary, minor and multidisciplinary offerings. It also includes ability and skill enhancement components, value-added courses, and research or project-based work, with at least one IKS–CKS-integrated course in every discipline.

Postgraduate Framework

At the postgraduate level, the curriculum places greater emphasis on advanced core and elective courses, research methodology, academic writing and professional development. It includes a compulsory university-wide course, 'IKS: Life Empowerment and Enrichment Programme', alongside seminars, internships and a capstone component that may be completed through a dissertation, industry project or startup initiative.

GRANTS

RUDSETI Project Funding

Prof. Manjula R. Iyer, Dr Rakhy K. S. and Dr Veena M. were awarded project funding of ₹5,77,500 by the National Academy of Rural Development and Self Employment Training Institute (RUDSETI). The funding will support the development of structured, outcome-oriented learning materials for vocational diploma and certificate programmes.
