

CV of P.R. Devi Prasad
(Indian Economic Service 1982-2014)
(Founding Director Fiscal Policy Institute, Govt of Karnataka Bangalore 2008-2013)

1. Shri Devi Prasad had experience with technical matters relating to macro-economic policies and government budgets as well as administrative, financial, and vigilance matters, performance management in central and state governments.

2. He studied at Osmania university, Bombay university, George Mason University, Fairfax, Punjab University through IIPA New Delhi, International Institute for Population Sciences Bombay, Centre for Development Studies Trivandrum. He started his career as lecture at Bombay (1979-1981) and later joined Indian Economic Service (1982-2014). He had established Fiscal Policy Institute, Bangalore for Government of Karnataka; worked with Government of India in various capacities in Budget Division in Finance Ministry, Department of Commerce, Ministry of Rural Development, Delhi Development Authority, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Capital Markets Division in Finance Ministry, Forward Markets Commission, Bombay, Programme Evaluation Organisation, Hyderabad, Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs (now part of Ministry of External Affairs), and International Monetary Fund, Washington DC.

3. He has been delivering lectures on fiscal policy, budget management, macro-economic management, public policy, public financial management, military budget, and right to information at several institutions such as ASCI Hyderabad, IIPA New Delhi IIM Lucknow and Bangalore, Indian Business School Bangalore and Gurgaon, National Institute of Financial Management at Faridabad, Centre for Public Policy Research Kochi, Administrative Training Institute Mysore, NIT Warangal, Centre for Land Warfare Studied, New Delhi.

4. Education:

- a) PG Diploma in Public Policy (Global Trade Management), George Mason University, Virginia USA 2004.
- b) MPhil Public Administration, Punjab University 2001
- c) LLB Bombay University 1984
- d) PG Diploma in Population and Development, CDS Trivandrum, 1991
- e) PG Certificate in Demography IIPS Bombay 1979
- f) MA Economics Kakatiya University, Warangal 1978

5. He was adviser to Project Management Institute Karnataka Chapter, and presently a trustee on Ekalavya Foundation, Hyderabad engaged in promotion of Organic farming in the states of Telangana and Andhra Pradesh.

6. Enrolled as an Advocate in 2018.
