E-GOVERNANCE POLICY

Introduction

ICT-based technology has been integrated into every aspect of the Institute's operations. As part of it, since 2015, e-governance has been used whenever practicable in the following areas: administration, accounts, website, library, admissions, exams, rind social media.

Objectives of the policy:

1. To integrate e-governance into the Institute's many initiatives.
2. To ensure accountability, openness, and cooperation in the Institute's operations in order to optimise system performance.
3. To, whenever feasible, adopt paperless administration.
4. To promote internet, intranet, and ERP portal-based online internal and external communication amongst all stakeholders.
5. To use the ERP portal to send out all necessary information to students, including the schedule, course materials, and extracurricular and cocurricular activities.
6. To increase he Institute's online and social media presence.

Implementation of the policy:

For the past few years, e-Governance has gained popularity. Internal communications and circulars are issued by email and the institute ERP to staff members, instructors, and students. Systems for examinations have been automated and are connected via the ERP. The office maintains all of the accounting using both ERP and Tally. The library uses ER in addition to Auto Lib software. The Institute informs students about numerous events tat: on campus using social media platforms. The efficient operation of the website is maintained by professionals.

Additionally, a new ERP portal that connects all the systems and guarantees efficient campus governance has been built.
